

It was a day worth remembering other than anything that happened entirely on the previous days. We lost the wifi connection in the morning after I had my breakfast. I spoke to the people and I realized that it's not going to work today. I spent the entire day doing nothing in the morning and in the afternoon. In the morning, at around 11 am, I went to The DTDC courier and received a parcel of food items that I ordered. We prepared junnu with the powder we got through the parcel. In the evening, I attended the class and wrote the exam. I think it was not hard although I felt hard writing this exam. I submitted my exam 38 minutes late. And after that, I ate my dinner and spoke to Mahesh about the sweets parcel. I spent some time watching on the mobile and later went to sleep.
