

I woke up at 11 am; it was my first holiday in a long time, and I slept like a baby. I cleaned my hall in my house and ordered some food from uber eats. I ate some food and studied in the afternoon. I took a nap in the evening and woke up at 9 pm, and then after some time, I did my bath and read the daily quota of my book. Aravind came home when I was reading the book. We thought of cooking first, and later we realised that we don't have the patience to cook. So we ordered from the restaurant. We ate, and right now, I am writing this. Once I am done with this, I will apply oil to my hair and brush my teeth. I haven't decided after that what I should do.
