

I woke up in the afternoon around 1 pm. And then I did my bathroom rituals, made up my breakfast and ate it while watching TV. in the afternoon, before my lunch, I read the newspaper and finished my daily quota of reading books. Aravind came home at 4 pm and we both prepared lunch. After lunch, I studied the HTML language and watched youtube videos. In the evening, we ordered Dynamite chicken from the biriyaniwala and ate our dinner. I am writing this diary while watching the Koffee with Karan show. After this, I will have to do my brushing and my bathroom rituals. I am thinking of studying if I dont get sleep.
