

I was half awake when my father started shouting my brother's name from my house. I heard my father scream from my house to my terrace and due to this sound I got up on my terrace and woke up my brother. Due to the syrup which I took for my constipation, I had the urge to go to the bathroom. My father was in the bathroom and he was done for the next half hour. I waited for that time and went to the bathroom afterwards and did my daily chores. When I came back, I read the newspaper and proceeded to walk. I have the tiffin while watching tv . today, I decided to go to the bank to deposit money and went after 10:30 am to actually deposit. I thought it would take time to deposit but what happened was some kind of miracle. It happened so fast and I came back and spent the rest of the time doing payments, talking to apple. In the afternoon, after I had lunch, I went to read a book and ate some sweets, egg cutlet and did leg exercises. The process took almost 2-3 hours. After the bath, I had a fruitful session with the swift language. I studied for 1 hour and had a light dinner because of the items I ate in the late evening. Right now, I have to go and clean my daily chores which I was doing everyday. Probably going to spend the rest of the night watching series, videos on youtube....
