

I woke up before my alarm woke me up. I did my schedules such as the bathroom, and breakfast in the 1 hour from 11 am to 12 pm. After that, I started my journey to the allied security office to collect the uniform. I reached there at 10 to 1 and I answered their question to let me into their office. I noticed a few people who came to the office to pick up their uniforms. Initially, we have to watch the videos and answer all the questions to go for the final round which is collecting the uniforms. It took me almost 4 hours to complete those exams and I was the first one in the whole class to do the exam. After that, she asked me to do the certification which they sent me through email and I haven't done it at my home. While I started working on it, the guy sitting next to me asked to help with his exam. I sat next to his seat and started telling him the answers for the exam. The invigilator came and took me to the reception area to wait for the uniform. Meanwhile, I was watching the videos regarding those links and she told me to complete them in my home. Everyone completed their exam and we went to collect the uniforms. She gave me 4 shirts, 1 pair of trousers, 1 notebook, 1 jacket, and 1 badge. I came home after dropping off the book in the library. I ate my lunch and started watching those videos. While I was watching the videos, I saw the beds delivered and we need to arrange them in a proper order to use. I and Mahesh fixed them. At half-past seven, I did my bath and relaxed for a while listening to the songs. For our dinner, we ordered chicken biriyani from outside and I ate my dinner after speaking to my mother and Madhav. Right now, I am writing this one. Once I am done with this, I will have to email the RBC regarding my debit card, brush my teeth, soak my almonds, and study for a bit. I am not sure of the last one.
