

I woke up at 5:30 am and straight away started getting ready for my college. I boarded the bus at the Kennedy station and reached Sheppard avenue east and boarded another bus from there. I went to the college and the professor was taking demos from random people and we gave our demo at last. We feared a lot before going into the demo but it was not that one which you have to worry about. We did that and came back home. At home, I smacked biriyani from the restaurant. after that, I took a nap and woke up at 7:30 pm. I submitted my project and started studying for tomorrow's exam. After a while, I cleaned utensils and prepared the rice. I spoke to my parents after the preparation of rice. Then, I ate my dinner, watched a youtube video for a bit, brushed my teeth, took the tablets, applied the ointment, and completed my bathroom ritual. Right now, I am writing this one. once I am done with this, I will start studying for tomorrow's exam.
