

I woke up early in the morning and did my daily chores such as washing, brushing and cleaning. When I woke up, there was no power in my village; the power came at 1:30 pm. During this time, something happened to my family which I will not write about because I don't want to remember the things which happened to us badly. Due to these, we faced some consequences for that. After that, when the power came, I started ironing my clothes. The procedure went on to the afternoon. In the afternoon, I didn't do much as expected as I was busy watching tv, editing on Xcode, and eating samosas. I came to the terrace at 6 pm and worked on the assignment. It turned out to be pretty well for me in terms of my assignment. In the meantime, I got a call from Mahesh's friend's father regarding the courier. I got the pdf for the security licence exam. Right now, I am sitting and writing this diary from the terrace. Once I complete this, I will do the remaining bathroom rituals for the night and probably watch movies or web series for this night.
