

Yesterday, it rained a little bit. Due to the rain, I had to sleep on the sofa rather than on the terrace. I woke up early and did my bathroom chores and worked on the project in the morning. I chatted with donia about the project and after that, I spent some time watching web series. I ate breakfast and bathed and started the journey to Sri kalahasti temple. We reached the temple at around half-past eleven and directly went to pooja. We waited in the queue for one and a half hours to complete the full tour of the temple. We started our journey back home. We reached home at around 2 pm and had lunch at my house. I took the money and deposited it in Sunil's account and handed my aunt's financial matter to Sunil. It was normal until the evening because I didn't do much in that period of time. At 6 pm, I came terrace and found the error in our project and conveyed the same message to our group people. After that, I chatted with niyo global regarding the lounge access and watched several videos of the Chennai airport lounge. Right now, I am writing this diary. Once I complete this, I will spend some time on videos or web series and later, I will have my dinner. At the night, I will watch web series or videos according to my preference and interest at that time.
