

I completed my shift at 12:30 pm because Yash, the other security guard, came late. I came home around 1:30 pm, then ate my lunch and slept. at around 8:30 pm, I woke up, cleaned the dishes, ironed my clothes for tomorrow, and bathed. Right now, I ordered food from outside and started writing this one. Once I complete it, I will watch youtube or something before my food arrives. Moreover, I need to smack the food from uber eats once it is delivered. I will try to sleep after my dinner and brush my teeth.
