

I woke up at 5:30 am and when I woke up, my eyes were hurting very bad. at one point, I decided to skip college to get good sleep, but I knew my mind would not get over it if I didn't go to college. somehow I gathered strength and went to college. In the college, I spoke with both Donia and Vishaka regarding the project. after the class. I went to the Tim Hortons part-time job and bought a wrap with the staff discount. I ate it for my afternoon lunch. I started my part-time and continued up to 10 pm. During the shift, I spent some time in the drive-thru and I spent some stacking all things. in the end, I brought 8 doughnuts, 2 bagels, 1 butter, and 1 maple bacon with me when I started home. In-home, I spread those with my roommates. Right now, I have to do my brush, clear my stomach, and sleep. I forgot to mention that I paid my credit card bills in India when I started writing.
