

Why writing a journal is one of the most difficult tasks? Right now, that's what I am feeling when I thought of writing. I woke up as usual and did my daily chores and studied the newspaper, went for walking, and read the Elon Musk biography. In the afternoon, I ate my lunch and added some clothes for my Canada. In the evening, after having my bath, I did my classroom selection for my college. Right now, I feel like not writing and decided to go to my bed.
