

It's a weekend and I didn't sleep until half-past one because I was watching a movie. When I woke up, there was no power due to Saturday and I did my 30 minutes walk while reading the newspaper I completed my newspapers after my 30 minutes walk. I had my breakfast and read the ugly love book while the power was off and came back while I was reading. In the meantime, we had a chat with our group regarding the group project submission and we decided to meet online in the evening. In the afternoon, after my lunch, I spent the entire afternoon watching videos and eating some snacks which my mom at the early evening. I had a bath and contacted my team. we were working and at the same time, they were pretty fast and doing all the work. I just had time and I am writing this diary in the meantime while they were preparing the document. After this, I have to eat my dinner and thinking of watching KGF 2 movie.
