

Yesterday, after the completion of my diary, I was watching the web series and suddenly, my cousin, Hari Kiran came to my village. He came because he need to deliver a bag of clothes, stationery, and fruits to his sister through her sister's parents. I woke up and did my rituals and had my breakfast. We lost power at half-past eight and I was waiting for the power. I realized the power was not going to come at any time soon and that's why I read it ends with us book until my laptop battery got drained. In the afternoon, I watched some youtube videos, had my lunch, and spent the rest of the afternoon learning Java, and english. I did my leg exercises and did my bath. In the evening, I read the swift language and had my dinner. Right now, I am writing this diary while sitting on my ass watching the IPL match. After this, I have to do my brush and clean my face. Before I go, there is one thing I must tell you, my college kept an exam before the classroom registration. The registration exam will be held for 4 days and we need to learn some concepts before we write the exam. tomorrow, I am going to study for the exam and write the exam.
