

I ordered pizza at 2:00 am along with Aravind. We both ate and slept. I woke up at 1 pm and then ate my lunch. After lunch, I checked my library books, which were due at my branch. I needed to go to the library to collect the books within eight days. I read the newspaper and the book. I tried sleeping, but it didn't come, and I did this process until 5 pm. From 6 pm to 8 pm, I didn't do anything. After 8 pm, I cleaned chores, Ironed my shirt, and washed my face with cold water. Right now, I am writing this one. Once I am done with this, I will bathe, boil the eggs, and eat them before I start my shift.
