

I slept in the Dheeraj room and woke up at noon. I took a few calls from Rajesh and Mahesh. Rajesh asked me about the security job procedure, and Mahesh asked me about the restaurant they were visiting in the evening. He wondered whether I should come with him or not. Afterwards, we prepared the food for our lunch and ate around 1 pm. I emailed allied security regarding my position, and they told me to go and fuck. Apart from that, I read the book for a while. It is almost 6 pm, and we need to start our journey from Kennedy station to this tandoori flames restaurant. I don't know how it's going to be. But I am not writing that one. When I return home, I will do the iron If I have time. I am waiting for two parcels today. one is the iron box, and the other is the protein shaker. I guess it will be in my home when I come home tonight. I went to this restaurant with my brothers and their friends. The food was terrible, and it was not good at all. Lastly, before we finished our food, Shalini asked everyone to come to Niagara falls. We are okay, and we started our journey there. We reached there and enjoyed ourselves for a while, and returned home.
