

Last night, I slept on Mahesh's bed and woke up pretty early in the morning. I did my daily chores and proceeded to sit at the dining table with my laptop. I ate chocolate while I was seeing how to book the cibc banking centre. everyone woke up and started for the day. I wash my face and went to fido to get a new sim with Mahesh and Dheeraj. We got a pretty good deal and I ended up buying the iPhone xs for the same sim deal. Furthermore, we got one month free of recharge because of the referral. After that, we went to dollarama to run some errands and came home at half-past twelve. I and Dheeraj had lunch and he went for a nap while I was looking over my new iPhone in the evening, apart from Mahesh, everyone arranged the kitchen and wrote the list of items we need to buy from the shopping marts. We went to dollarma, Walmart, and the park. We reached home at 10 pm. After that, we had our dinner, I did my bath, brushed, arranged the bed, and went to sleep.
