

I woke up early and did my daily chores in the bathroom, ate the cashews, almonds, and raisins, and gave the demo for my project. I got applause from donia mentioning I did a phenomenal job in the demo. I texted on WhatsApp that I will not be available for the rest of the class because I am going outside. After my demo, I didn't have much to do. so, I went to the balcony to sit. To my surprise, it was raining with full josh. I and my brother decided not to go outside. I prepared tea with the help of my family and ate lunch in the afternoon. At around half-past 4, we went outside, bought a presto card, went to the animal shop, learnt the bus and metro system, and drank Tim Horton's coffee. The coffee was absolutely the worst. Furthermore, that coffee I am never going to drink again in my life. we came home and I bathed and did my mock test on the security license. Dheeraj prepared chicken curry for the night and we ate at a dining table speaking to each other. right now, I am writing this diary. once I complete this, I will watch youtube or prime and later will go to sleep. A couple of things I need to do before going online is brushing and soaking the almonds.
