

I expected how my day is going to be in the afternoon because I did something bad which I am regretting right now. I woke up and did my daily chores, read the newspaper, and read the book in the morning due to no power. I am not going to talk about my afternoon. I received the package from wildcraft and it turned out to be a child mask and it didn't contain a return/exchange. My parents went to Kadapa. During the class in the evening, I stuck with a storyboard and I didn't get a single output for any of the questions. Right now, I submitted the assignment using Donia's and writing this diary. In WhatsApp, we had a really good conversation regarding Canada. Once I complete my class, I will be having dinner
