

I am writing this diary after one day because I went to my relatives house. I woke up as usual and did my daily chores and went on to read the newspaper. When I came back to the hall from the bedroom after reading the newspaper, my mother asked me to come to kadapa. So, I decided to go to kadapa. I had a bath , tiffin, and caught the bus. On the bus, I spent time reading the newspaper while we were in the kadapa. After almost 10 years, I went to kadapa as well as to the house where my relatives live. My mother and her sister went to hospital and in the meantime, my friend came to kadapa and we went to the restaurant and had chicken biryani. I must tell you about the things that I noticed in kadapa , especially water. When I smelled the water, it was the smell that I had noticed when I was in kadapa ten years back. I spent the rest of the afternoon browsing on my mobile phone. It was 6:30 pm when sahiti and I went to buy the most famous dish during ramadan.the name of the dish is haleem. Firstly we went to the juice and then to haleem. We came back home and ate haleem and drank buttermilk. Then we proceeded to sleep. I slept on the cot while others on the floor.
