

I woke up early in the morning with the wakeup of alarm and got ready for the class. I had a productive day in front of my class. I did the exercise by myself and was proud of myself for the way I completed and submitted it. In the afternoon, I had lunch and started reading the book. Meanwhile, Dheeraj came home and we spoke with him about various things. In the evening, I made my bed, did my bath, and studied for a bit. In the end, my brother and I ordered mutton biriyani through the scam method that I and my friends invented in India and continued throughout Canada so far. We got the money from the door dash and ate the biriyani in peace. After that, I went outside to buy the soda and I went to three shops and didn't find soda in any shops. Right now, I am writing this diary. After this, I am going to do my brushing and watch some web series. I will sleep after watching some videos or web series.
