

I don't remember much about this day because I am writing this daily diary after two days on my birthday. As far as I remember, I studied and read the news and attended the class. In the class, he told us about the view cell concept and gave some questions to practice. I was kind of tired after the class. So, that's why I didn't diary after the class. I had my dinner after the class and went to sleep.