

I woke up at 12 pm in the afternoon and found no one in the room. I called Aravind to check where he is but he didn't pick up my call. later, I checked his shoes and bag and both are missing. then, I realized that he went to his job. I cleaned myself and ate lunch. In the afternoon, I didn't do much. in the evening, I studied for a bit and had a bath. at around half-past seven, I prepared upma with the help of Mahesh. I ate my dinner and right now, I am writing this one. once I am done with this, I will brush my teeth and probably gonna sleep I guess.
