

I ended my shift at 7 am and returned to my house within an hour. After coming home, I ate momos, and then I slept upto the afternoon. On the site, I spoke to Tamil people who came and talked to me beautifully. I read a book, cooked lunch, and browsed my mobile in the afternoon. In the evening, I got ready, and went to the Scarborough shopping centre. Rajesh and I ate our dinner and roamed the place for a while before returning home. Once I came to my home, I spoke to my parents, and right now, I am writing this one. After completion, I will browse my mobile, and then I will go to sleep.
