

I woke up at 5:30 Am and got ready for my college. When I was bathing, I got a call from Lokesh. Later, I called him and he said that he and Madhav were not coming. I started going to college. before going to the bus, I went to the Tim Hortons to get the Timbits. I reached my class at 8:10 am .he gave me three breaks in the entire span of class. When I completed the class, I came home and took a nap after my lunch. I woke up at 7 pm and went out shopping. I bought some groceries and prepared the dinner fully. Right now, I am writing this one. once I am done with this, I will do my brush, and study for some time.
