

I started my day at my job at 5 Hanna avenue. It was a day again dedicated to the fire alarm. Luckily, I didn't have too many alarms. I did my shift for extra 50 minutes because the next guard was late. After the shift, I went home, took a bath, ate lunch and some cake, and then went to sleep. I woke up and came to my shift.