

I started my shift at my job. I got 15 - 20 alarms in 2 hours when I started my shift. It was a hectic 2 hours. Then, it was a simple and beautiful shift. Then, I came home, ate my lunch, washed the utensils, bathed, and then slept. I woke up at 8:30 pm. With the help of Aravind, we made chapati for our dinner. After dinner, I washed my socks and a shoelace, trimmed my beard, and cut my nails. Right now, I am writing this. Once complete, I will browse my mobile, clean my face, and sleep.
