

I slept in the hall because Dheeraj's brother was coming, which is why I slept outside. I decided to skip college. I don't know what happened to me because I was awake at 8:30 am. Even though I skipped college, I tried sleeping but it is not coming because I was constantly getting an email from allied security and I had to reply to them because I need permanent shifts. At around 11:30 am, I had a bath and watched the match before my food arrives. We smacked the food and I ate it in a hurry because of my shift. I reached on time and I did my shift over there from 2 pm to 10 pm. It was a hectic shift for me. I came back home with some doughnuts and muffins. Dheeraj came home after a while and we had a good conversation for about 40 minutes. Then I went to sleep.
