

I woke up at 6 am for my shift. In the next hour, I got ready and started my journey to my job. I reached the location at 7:40 pm. I spent the next twenty minutes browsing my mobile and changing clothes. I helped my manager with the cardboard boxes when I started my shift. I didn't get the break because it was a five-hour shift. I ended my shift at 1 pm and started my way home. I called Christian to enquire about the security job and he told me that scheduler will contact me. On the bus, I also spoke to my parents. I came home, washed the utensils, kept rice for cooking, and called Vignesh. I inquired about his stay and everything in the states. After my lunch, I took a nap and woke up at 8 pm. After my nap, I washed the utensils and had a bath. I prepared and made the omlette for my dinner. Right now, I had my dinner and writing this one. Once I am done with this, I will watch a couple of youtube videos, brush my teeth, soak the almonds, and probably go to sleep.
