

I slept on my terrace and woke up pretty fast because of the thought of studying the swift language. I did my flossing, brushing, and breakfast before my bath. After that I had a bath, then I started reading the swift language and within moments of time, I lost my interest and read the Gujarat files book and completed it. After a bit of time I took a break, I started reading the Swift language and in the meantime, my father came and gave me the bank account form to fill in the details for the current account. It took a while to fill in the details and It was time for me to have a break I took the break from 12 to half-past two. I had my lunch and studied and attended the class in the evening. Right now, I submitted the two exercises which he gave and waiting for the class to be over. Once I have done this, I will have to do my dinner, brushing, and mouthwash
