

I woke up to the sound when my phone started ringing. It was suresh and he told me to attend the class to give the demo. I told him to give me 2 minutes to attend the class. After the call, I saw the time and it was around half-past eight I literally run to the class and gave the presentation for my project. After my project demo, I made breakfast, ate it, made a couple of calls to the security companies, and spoke to premal for half an hour about various things. I prepared several documents for the lab test and submitted removing the previous ones. I spoke to my parents in the afternoon and ate lunch. Before eating lunch, I and Aravind built the chair from the scratch. I watched one episode of Koffee with Karan and I was actually thinking of studying at that time. I just received an email from Tim Hortons that they selected me for the job to work at them. I was literally over the moon when I saw the news. in the evening, Premal came to my house he was a good-looking guy and we literally spoke for about 30 minutes and went to the Tim Hortons to buy a coffee. from there, we went to the park and we chilled a bit and parted ways when we come to our apartment. Right now, I am writing this diary. Once I am done with this, I will have to do several things such as dinner, working on the project and submitting it, watching Tim Hortons videos, selecting Tim Hortons google forms, speaking to my parents, and brushing my teeth before going to sleep.
